

Join us for a panel discussion on
The Lasting Legacy and Future of the United Nations and International Law

---

The Max Planck Foundation for International Peace and the Rule of Law presents the formal launch event for Volume 25 of the Max Planck Yearbook of United Nations Law (UNYB). Volume 25 marks the 25th anniversary since the UNYB was founded in 1997.

The distinguished speakers will present the major findings from their respective contributions found in this special volume of the UNYB.

---

Panelists:

Pierre-Marie Dupuy

Professor of Public International Law, University of Paris (Pantheon-Assas)

The Constitutional Dimension of the UN Charter Revisited: Almost One Quarter of a Century Later

Dinah Shelton

Emeritus Professor of Law, The George Washington University Law School

The Development of Human Rights Law and Challenges Faced by UN Treaty Bodies 1969–2022

Michael Wood

KCMG, KC, Barrister, Twenty Essex Chambers, London

The Work of the International Law Commission between 1997 and 2022: A Positive Assessment

24 March 2023 | 15:00–17:00 CET

The event will take place via Zoom: register here